Background and Context

The Dark Tower Series: An Overview

Stephen King's The Dark Tower series, initiated in 1982 with The Gunslinger, is a genre-blending saga that combines elements of fantasy, horror, Western, and science fiction. It follows Roland Deschain, the last gunslinger, on a quest to reach the mystical Dark Tower, which is the linchpin holding the multiverse together.

The series comprises eight main books, with Wolfsmond being the fifth installment, published in 2003. It acts as both a standalone narrative and a crucial chapter that advances key plotlines, character arcs, and thematic motifs.
